DIRECT DEPOSIT AUTHORIZATION FORM

BENETEMPS, INC. dba BTHR Solutions will arrange to have your paycheck direct deposited into your bank account(s). You may elect up to two accounts – checking, savings or both. Please complete the information below and attach a voided check for any checking accounts. It will take 2-3 weeks for your direct deposit to begin. During that time, you will receive a “live” check. Once your direct deposit is active, your pay statements will be available via the internet on ADP's Workforce Now secure website. Instructions will be provided at the start of your assignment.

Please return to Beth Kilcup via email (beth@bthrsolutions.com) or by fax # 781-474-5642.

Important! Please read and sign before completing and submitting.

I hereby authorize BENETEMPS, INC., either directly or through its payroll service provider, to deposit any amounts owed me, by initiating credit entries to my account at the financial institution (hereinafter “Bank”) indicated on this form. Further, I authorize Bank to accept and to credit any credit entries indicated by BENETEMPS, either directly or through its payroll service provider, to my account. In the event that BENETEMPS deposits funds erroneously into my account, I authorize BENETEMPS, either directly or through its payroll service provider, to debit my account for an amount not to exceed the original amount of the erroneous credit.

This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until BENETEMPS and Bank have received written notice from me of its termination in such time and manner as to afford BENETEMPS and Bank reasonable opportunity to act on it.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____ Add the amounts above and enter the total here 3 $ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1a, 1b, and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 10% of your income
2 Enter: { $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $18,650 if you're head of household; $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

BTHR BeneTemps' Conduct Guidelines

BTHR BeneTemps' continuing ability to provide our employees with work assignments largely depends upon our collective success in providing clients with quality service and professionalism at all times. Please review the following guidelines and initial each statement below to indicate your understanding of expected conduct while on assignment as a BTHR BeneTemps contractor.

1. While on an assignment I will conduct myself and perform my work in a professional manner, and I will adhere to all client companies' policies and regulations. I will report to my work assignment promptly and show good attendance. _____
2. I understand that any time worked for a client outside of the arranged work schedule must be approved by the client supervisor. Hours that have not been approved will not be paid by BTHR BeneTemps. _____
3. I understand that it is my responsibility to return any property issued to me by the client company no later than my last day of work at the assignment. _____
4. If I must miss scheduled work time due to illness or personal reasons, I will notify my assignment supervisor and BTHR BeneTemps no less than 15 minutes prior to my scheduled start time. _____
5. I understand that acceptance of a work assignment means I have committed to work until the scheduled end date of the assignment. If for some unforeseen reason I must resign from my assignment, I will do my best to give two weeks' notice in writing – first to BTHR BeneTemps and then to client. _____
6. I understand that as my employer, BTHR BeneTemps will be responsible for helping me resolve any concerns, conflicts, issues or challenges that may arise during my assignments. I understand that I should notify BTHR BeneTemps immediately of any issues with my assignment and I should discuss the issues with the client only after counsel with BTHR BeneTemps. _____
7. If the client notifies me of the scheduled end date of my assignment, I will notify BTHR BeneTemps immediately. If client notifies BTHR BeneTemps of the scheduled end date of an assignment, BTHR BeneTemps will notify me immediately. _____
8. If any BTHR BeneTemps client to whom I have been assigned offers me a permanent, temporary or part-time position either while on assignment or within six months of the end of such assignment, I will not accept any such offer before notifying BTHR BeneTemps. _____
9. I understand that all matters relating to pay and bill rates are necessarily confidential, and I will not discuss these matters with clients or others. _____
10. I understand that nothing in these Guidelines is intended to create or imply a contractual relationship, and that my employment is at-will, i.e., that it is not for any specific time period or duration and can be terminated with or without reason at any time. _____

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

The BTHR Solutions Employee Handbook located in the following pages, describes important information about BTHR Solutions and I understand that I should consult management of the company regarding any questions not answered in the handbook. I have entered into my employment relationship with BTHR Solutions voluntarily and acknowledge that there is no specified length of employment. Accordingly, either BTHR Solutions or I may terminate the relationship at will, with or without cause, at any time, so long as there is no violation of applicable federal or state law.

Since the information, policies, and benefits described here are necessarily subject to change, I acknowledge that revisions to the handbook may occur, except to BTHR Solutions' policy of employment-at-will. Any such changes may be made without notice, and I understand that revised information may supersede, modify, or eliminate existing policies.

Furthermore, I acknowledge that this handbook is not a contract of employment. I have received and reviewed this handbook. I understand that it is my responsibility to read and comply with the policies contained in this handbook and any revisions made to it.

EEO/Diversity Statement

BTHR Solutions is firmly committed to creating a climate where the different perspectives that diversity brings to its business are valued. Attracting and developing a diverse workforce that reflects the communities in which we serve is at the foundation of this precept. Viewing diversity as an asset is essential in cultivating a workforce that reflects the changing face of the United States.

It is the continuing policy of BTHR Solutions to afford equal employment opportunity to recruit qualified individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, age, disability, veteran status or any other basis protected by law. This policy encompasses all aspects of the employment relationship, including application and initial employment, job assignment, selection for training opportunities and salary/benefits administration.

Employment decisions will be based on the principles of equal employment opportunity and with the intent to further BTHR Solutions' commitment to diversity. All applicants for employment and employees of BTHR Solutions may exercise their rights under this policy or federal, state or local laws at any time.

Sexual Harassment Policy

It is the policy of BTHR Solutions to provide an environment free from sexual and sex-based harassment. Sexual harassment or sex-based harassment occurs when unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature becomes a condition of an employee's continued employment, affects other employment decisions regarding the employee, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Sexual and sex-based harassment may include:

- Requests for sexual favors.
- Unwanted physical contact, including touching, pinching, or brushing the body.
- Verbal harassment, such as sexual innuendoes, suggestive comments, jokes of a sexual nature, sexual propositions, and threats.
- Non-verbal conduct, such as display of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, leering, whistling, or obscene gestures.
- Acts of physical aggression, intimidation, hostility, threats, or unequal treatment based on sex (even if not sexual in nature).

Any BTHR Solutions employee who believes he or she has been sexually harassed should report the conduct immediately to Beth Kilcup. In the event you feel this type of harassment is caused by Beth Kilcup, you are advised to consult with Sam Gruenbaum, President of BTHR Solutions in Waltham, MA. No victim retaliation or discrimination will result from any good-faith complaint made under this policy.

A thorough and impartial investigation of all complaints will be conducted in as timely and confidential a manner as possible. Any associate of BTHR Solutions who has been found, after appropriate investigation, to have sexually harassed another employee will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Harassment

In providing a productive working environment, BTHR Solutions believes that its employees should be able to enjoy a workplace free from all forms of discrimination, including harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, and disability. It is BTHR Solutions' policy to provide an environment free from such harassment.

Prohibited harassment occurs when verbal or physical conduct defames or shows hostility toward an individual because of his or her race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age or disability, or that of the individual's relatives, friends, or associates; creates or is intended to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment; interferes or is intended to interfere with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Epithets, slurs, negative stereotyping, or threatening, intimidating or hostile acts, which relate to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, or disability.
- Written or graphic material that defames or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group because of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, or disability and that is placed on walls, bulletin boards, or elsewhere in the workplace, or that is circulated in the workplace.

Any BTHR Solutions employee who believes he or she has been harassed should report the conduct immediately to Beth Kilcup. In the event you feel this type of harassment is caused by Beth Kilcup, you are advised to consult with Sam Gruenbaum, President of BTHR Solutions in Waltham, MA. No victim retaliation or discrimination will result from any good-faith complaint made under this policy.

A thorough and impartial investigation of all complaints will be conducted in as timely and confidential a manner as possible. Any associate of BTHR Solutions who has been found, after appropriate investigation, to have harassed another employee will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Americans with Disabilities Act and ADA Amendment Act

To comply with the applicable laws ensuring equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with disabilities, BTHR Solutions will provide reasonable accommodation to individuals with a known physical or mental disability if such accommodation would not impose an undue hardship on BTHR Solutions or our clients and would enable the individual to apply for, or perform, the essential functions of the position in question.

Any applicant or employee who requires an accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job should contact their BTHR Solutions Recruiter and request such an accommodation. The individual with the disability should specify in writing what accommodation is reasonable and if it will not impose an undue hardship, BTHR Solutions will make the accommodation, work with our clients to make the accommodation or BTHR Solutions may also propose an alternative accommodation(s).

Employee Complaints - When to Contact BTHR Solutions

At BTHR Solutions, we all work as a team to find the right assignments for our employees. All BTHR Solutions Representatives are aware of ongoing assignments.

The following are examples of when to contact BTHR Solutions:

- If you are instructed to perform any duties other than those described to you when you accepted the assignment.
- If you are entitled to a meal break but are not being provided time for one or are prevented from taking one.
- Upon completion of assignment, contact your BTHR Solutions Representative by phone between the hours of 9am - 5pm.
- If you cannot report to work or will be late for any reason.
- If you are injured while on assignment.
- Any time you are available for work and would like to be considered for an assignment.
- If your assignment is ending, contact BTHR Solutions within 48 hours of completion of each assignment.
- If a client offers you a full-time position, remind them that you are employed by BTHR Solutions. You may certainly accept the offer, but you must discuss it first with your BTHR Solutions Representative.
- If the client requests that you work overtime.
- If you change your name, telephone number or address.
- If you believe you are experiencing any type of harassment, unlawful discrimination or discrimination prohibited by BTHR Solutions policy while on assignment.
- If you are convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation.
- If you have a complaint or dispute about your pay, assignment or working conditions, you must contact your BTHR Solutions Recruiter.
- If you are requested for Jury or Witness Duty.

Employment at Will

Employment with the BTHR Solutions is entered into voluntarily, and you are free to resign from your position with the company at will, at any time, with or without cause. Similarly, the Company may terminate the employment relationship at will at any time, with or without notice or cause, so long as there is no violation of applicable federal or state law.

Policies set forth in this handbook are not intended to create a contract, nor are they to be construed to constitute contractual obligations of any kind or a contract of employment between BTHR Solutions and you. The provisions of the handbook have been developed at the discretion of management and, except for its policy of employment-at-will, may be amended or cancelled at any time, at the Company's sole discretion.

These provisions supersede all existing policies and practices and may not be amended or added to without the express written approval of the President of the Company.
